Times Tables Rockstars!

Thankyou for your continued support and encouragement in engaging your children with the Times Tables Rockstars game. It has been incredible to see so many pupils actively participating and enhancing their times tables skills through this enjoyable and interactive platform.

Your involvement has played a vital role in fostering their enthusiasm and dedication, and we are truly grateful for your partnership in this educational initiative.

At the same time, we would like to kindly remind families of the importance of maintaining a healthy balance when it comes to screen time.

While Times Tables Rockstars is a valuable educational tool, we recommend that children limit their screen usage to reasonable periods and avoid engaging with the game late at night or immediately upon waking. This is essential in promoting healthy habits, supporting their overall well-being, and ensuring that they get adequate rest.
